STEP open house

STEP's Round Hills Campus holds an open house Monday that included tours and information about STEP programs, activities for children, refreshments, and a fire truck, ambulance, and "Snuffy" the mascot from the Old Lycoming Township Volunteer Fire Co. The new facility is in the former Round Hills Elementary School. Top left, Janice Rubin of STEP reads a book for children during the open house. Top right, Kadence Schon, 5, daughter of Sarah Waltz and Josh Schon, of Trout Run, "Goes on a Bear Hunt" in the Music and Movement room. Above right, Jaxon Slaikeu, 2, son of Tim and Sara Slaikeu, of Williamsport, picks out a pumpkin to decorate while, above left, Abbernathy Henry, 3, and her mother Gabrielle Fulp, of Williamsport, decorate her pumpkin. Below left, "Snuffy," Old Lycoming Township Volunteer Fire Co.'s mascot receives a "high five" from Zariah Simmons, 2, daughter of Brittani Taylor and Shakur Simmons, of Williamsport. Below right, Ava Winters, 4, daughter of Lee and Kim Winters, of Muncy, tries out the gurney as EMT Sue Dively-Smith gives her a tour of Old Lycoming Township Volunteer Fire Co.'s ambulance.
